

Sarah Sue Landau

ASSOCIATE

Sarah Sue Landau's practice focuses on trademark and copyright clearance, prosecution, enforcement, and litigation. Sarah Sue received her J.D. from New York University School of Law in 2020. At NYU, she served as a Staff Editor of the NYU Journal for Intellectual Property and Entertainment Law. Her article, "Of Mouse and Men: Will Mickey Mouse Live Forever?" published in the Spring 2020 edition, explored the vital intersection between copyright law and trademark law by analyzing the history of Mickey Mouse and the impending expiration of the copyright in the famous character.

While in law school, Sarah Sue interned with the New York City Mayor's Office of the Chief Technology Officer, Grubhub, and Cowan, Debaets, where she conducted research on a variety of trademark, copyright, advertising, and privacy issues. She was also a Judicial Intern for The Honorable Eileen Rakower in New York State Supreme Court.
