Description

Leason Ellis LLP is seeking a junior associate to join our highly regarded trademark and copyright team.

Leason Ellis is an established IP boutique law firm headquartered in White Plains, New York. We launched in 2008, and now house over 30 trademark, copyright and patent attorneys under our roof. World Trademark Review has stated that our “lean size belies the immense talent housed here, with all its lawyers boasting stellar credentials.” We tend to agree.

Qualifications

You are a trademark and copyright attorney with about three to five years of experience under your belt. You’ve conducted trademark searching, and you’ve counselled clients on filing strategies. You’ve become adept at drafting persuasive responses to Office Actions, compelling demand letters, and sensible co-existence agreements. Ideally, you’ve handled contentious matters before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board and been exposed to litigation before the federal courts. With the basics in hand, you want to take the next step in your career and join a firm with the talent and resources to help take your practice to a higher level of sophistication.

We're big enough to handle any intellectual property issue that our clients may face. Yet we're small enough to coordinate efficiently when evaluating our clients' issues, identifying practical and creative solutions for their business needs, and putting our insights to work on their behalf.
